

My Love,

Everyday with you is a beautiful gift. Your love fills my heart with joy, and your smile makes even the simplest moment feel magical. Life by your side is my greatest adventure.

No matter what what comes our way, I promise to love endlessly, you are my happiness, home and my forever.

We've had our ups and downs, moments of misunderstanding and silence, but even then my feelings for you never changed. Every phase taught me how deeply I care and how much you truly matter to me.

On your birthday, I wish you all the happiness you bring into my world and more. I hope your dreams find their way to you, and I hope I get to stand beside you through every chapter, cheering you on, holding your hand, and loving you a little more each day.

I am so happy I met a such a wonderful person like you, you are the best girlfriend anyone could ever ask for.

Thank you for being you.

Happy Birthday, my favorite person. 🇺🇸

With all my heart,
Ashu
